lyrics and vocal melody by Jeff Crierie  cell: (323) 397-5511  e-mail: jeff@utmosis.net

spoken intro:

I never imagined I'd stay so late you see, I was only out to make a cameo...

chorus:

I was only planning on a cameo
never knew you'd be so slammin' tho
now I want you in my picture show give you the starring role

verse 1:

kick it up, no time to talk hit the club, one eye the clock my best girls are my supporting cast when I say "go" we walk the walk whether yo! ready or or not takes a bright star to shoot so fast take ONE: I was only out for fun (we party, party, party) take TWO: I didn't count on seeing you (hella-hella! hello-hello!)

chorus:

I was only planning on a cameo
never knew you'd be so slammin' tho

spoken interlude:

a cameo's quick, so cut to the chase with my hand on the door, one final scan of the place when I saw your face

chorus:

I was only planning on a cameo
never knew you'd be so slammin' tho

verse 2:

switch on the fans, we're blazin' hot roll cameras, I'm changin' the plot rated R we just blew past (zimmee zimmee zimmee zimmee down down)

you made your entrance on the dot my next appearance done forgot together we can make this last take THREE: a sudden change a plans for me (...no hurry, hurry, hurry)

take MORE: 'cuz more is what i got in store (oh cameo!)

chorus:

I was only planning on a cameo
never knew you'd be so slammin' tho

interlude:

a spotlight illuminates 3D version of a silver screen embrace

chorus:

I was only planning on a cameo
never knew you'd be so slammin' tho

spoken break:

tonight we're gonna show 'em what we got zoom in tight for my reaction shot now we're rollin' there is no equal you'll be beggin' for the sequel spoken outro:

oh cameo...
yeah...laugh....gasp
cameo
